GETTING TO KNOW YOU

OUR PRESIDENT
J. E. CHASTAIN
AND WIFE, WANDA

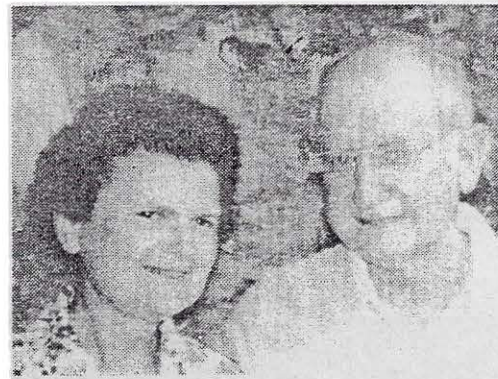

J. E. Chastain is a warm individual who at times appears to be shy; but, his shyness is overcome with eagerness in his position as our President.

J. E. stated he was "born April 1, 1927" but he added that was an incorrect date. It should have been February 11, 1926, at Charleston, Arkansas. He was the youngest of 10 children and they were very poor. The family moved to Caney, Kansas, in 1929, where J. E. attended school through the 7th grade. On April 27, 1944, he entered the U. S. Army and served with the Second Infantry until August 19, 1947. His parents were Joseph Pinkney Chastain (born 24 April 1884, at Sebastian, Arkansas) and Mary Ida Ibison (born 1885 in Franklin County) (continued page 15)

THIRD VICE PRESIDENT

- * TROY M. CHASTAIN
- * TROY M. Chastain is our Third Vice President. He and his wife, Frances, are both Chastain descendants.
- * Born 15 October 1914, in Gilmer County, Georgia, Troy is the son of William Maxwell Chastain. He attended a number of grade schools and a boarding school where he could work on the school farm to earn his board at the high school level. Later, he graduated at Lake Wales High School in Florida in June 1933 during the great depression. He started working at Ohio Medical Products Company in 1941 and is still with the same company, a division of Airco, Inc.
- * William Maxwell Chastain and his wife, Martha Lucinda Reese, had 8 sons and 4 daughters, eight of which are still living. Troy's paternal grandfather, Maxwell Chastain, was born 10 April 1823 in Georgia. He married Martha Elizabeth Davenport on 7 December 1851. Maxwell's father was Elijah, son of Rev. John Chastain, son of Pierre, Jr. and grandson of Pierre Chastain the immigrant. (Continued on page 15)

TROY CHASTAIN (continued from page 13) Troy Chastain married Frances Mildred Gay in 1937. She is the daughter of Benjamin Franklin Gay who was principal of the boarding school Troy attended. Frances was born in Madison, Georgia, on January 4, 1916. Her Gay line dates back to 1630 to the immigrant John Gay who left England for Boston, Massachusetts. She is not only a 10th generation of her Gay line but also a 10th generation of her Chastain line. Her mother, Effie (Bearden) Gay was born 18 May 1895 in Dawson County, Georgia, as the 9th generation. The Chastain line goes back: 8th generation - Samuel N. Bearden; 7th - Rachael (Stone) Bearden; 6th - Nancy Elvina (Chastain) Stone; 5th - Jonathan D. Chastain; 4th - Benjamin Chastain; 3d - Rev. John Chastain; 2d - Pierre Chastain (Jr.); 1st - Pierre Chastain, the immigrant. Troy and Frances Chastain have two sons, two daughters, six grandsons and one granddaughter.

Troy states his interest in genealogy came from his father, a minister, who had intense pride and great admiration for a man whose religious faith was strong enough to impell him to leave his native land and migrate to the English Colony of Virginia -- Pierre Chastain, the immigrant.

Miss Stafford Is Bride Of Richard Dean Anglin

First Baptist church at Kiefer was the setting for the Nov. 4 wedding of Miss Laure Lea Stafford and Richard Dean Anglin. Officiating minister was the Rev. Rex Hecox, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stafford, Kiefer, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warren Anglin, Sapulpa, are parents of the couple.

White gladioli, blue carnations and daisies were used in floral appointments at the altar. The prayer bench and Unity candle service was used.

Susan Smith presented a piano prelude of music from "Love Story," and Trina Lucas provided piano accompaniment for Pam Anglin who sang, "We've Only Just Begun."

The bride's gown was silk crepe overlaid with organdy, made princess style with a lace yoke long, fitted lace sleeves and high lace neckline. Her waistlength veil and long train fell from a headpiece made of lace and seed pearls. The train was edged with lace and seed pearls. Her flowers were a bridal bouquet of white roses, blue carnations and daisies with accents of deeper blue.

Attending the bride were Jeannie Stafford, maid of honor, Debbie Dees and Micki McGuire, bridesmaids. Susanne Powell was flower girl. Their gowns were blue organdy over blue silk crepe with lace trim.

Best man for the groom was Jon Hall, Sapulpa. Ushers were Jackie Stafford and Jackie Powell. Ring bearer was Scotty Dees.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford were hosts at a reception held in the church parlors following the wedding ceremony.

Following a honeymoon trip to Oklahoma City, the newlyweds are at home in Sapulpa.

The bride is a graduate of Kiefer high school and the groom was graduated from Sapulpa high school. Both are employed at Pickle's Thrift-Wise, Sapulpa.

RESEARCH TIPS

(Information in this column is provided by Mrs. Joe A. (Geraldine) Buland, who is a professional Genealogical Record Searcher. She is Secretary-Treasurer of our Association.)

When doing genealogical research in any large library, do not over-look the Vertical Files. These files contain valuable information that might not be found in any published works.

Another thing to check for is each library's "special collections" or indices to census records, military records for the particular area in which the library is located.

When doing research at the Dallas, Texas, Public Library, Mrs. Buland discovered that the Dallas Public Library has a cross-index to family names not mentioned in the title of published genealogies. They also have an Index to the 1860 Census of Texas on microfilm and an Index to Civil War Service records of Texas veterans. The Library also has the entire Draper's Manuscript Collection on microfilm with a printed partial index. Draper was a circuit rider who kept diaries of his travels through Kentucky, the Carolinas and Tennessee.

The Cross-Index to Family Genealogies at the Dallas Public Library contained the following books: "The Maupin Family, With Allied Branches" by Sherman 1962; "Genealogy of the Ancestors of Edgar Perry Maupin" by Maupin; "History and Genealogy of the Families of Miller, Woods, Harris, Wallace, Maupin, Oldham, Kavanaugh and Browne" by Miller; "Bible Records of Suffolk & Nansmond County, Virginia, Together with Other Statistical Data" by Norfleet 1962; "Falls Church by Fence & Fireside" by Steadman 1964; "Genealogical Collection at Virginia State Archives."
