Major General Ronald S. Chastain is a leading son of Arkansas.

On July 1, 2000, Major General Ron Chastain became Commander of the 39th Infantry Brigade of the Arkansas National Guard headquartered in Little Rock.

The 3,000 soldiers making up the 39th Infantry Brigade shipped out to Iraq in March of 2004. They returned home from Iraq in March and April of 2005. Thirty-three members were killed during their deployment.

In May of 2006, Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee appointed Major General Ron Chastain to lead the 10,000-member Arkansas National Guard.
